Traditional Days of Fast and Abstinence

Abstinence alone on all Fridays of the year unless a Holy Day of Obligation falls on Friday.

Fast alone on all days in Lent, Ember Wednesday and Ember Saturday

Fasting and Abstinence on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays in Lent unless St Patrick’s Day falls on Friday, and Ember Fridays.

Eucharistic Fast is three hours before Communion for food and one hour for liquids (with water and medicine being allowed at any time). Until the 1950’s the Church required fasting from midnight.

Fasting or penance during Advent is a more ancient tradition, but is highly recommended to prepare oneself for the anniversary of the birth of Our Lord and Redeemer.

The Church’s Present Days of Fast and Abstinence

There are only two obligatory days of Fast and Abstinence remaining in Australia, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

“On all the other Fridays of the year, the law of the common practice of penance is fulfilled by performing any one of the following:

1. prayer - as for example, Mass attendance; family prayer; a visit to a church or chapel; reading the Bible, the Way of the Cross; the Rosary, or in other ways.
2. self-denial - e.g. not eating meat; not eating sweets or desserts; or in other ways
3. helping others - e.g. special attention to someone who is poor, sick, elderly, lonely or overburdened, or in other ways.”

The Eucharistic fast is one hour for food or drink, except water and medicine.

It is encouraged that all Catholics perform penance and that we voluntarily observe the traditional laws of fast and abstinence.

Traditional Holy Days of Obligation

All Sundays in the year

The Circumcision of Our Lord - 1 January

The Ascension

The Assumption of Our Lady – 15 August

All Saints’ – 1 November

Christmas Day – 25 December

The Church’s Present Holy Days of Obligation

All Sundays in the year

Christmas Day – 25 December

The Ascension of Our Lord (solemnised the following Sunday)

Assumption of Our Lady

On these days, every Catholic is obliged, under pain of mortal sin, to hear Mass. Since Our Lord suffered death in order to institute Holy Mass, it requires a very serious inconvenience such as sickness or notable damage to one’s health or property, to excuse one from this obligation.

It is encouraged that all Catholics voluntarily observe the traditional laws regarding Holy Days of obligation.
