Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

The life of Christ as signified in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass - Rev. Fr. Peter F. Sfeir

1. The Annunciation and the Mystery of Incarnation recalled by the preparation of the Mass, putting on of the sacred vestments and the preparation of bread and wine.
2. The Nativity of our Lord is recalled by the Gloria, which was sung by the Angels at his birth.
3. The hidden life of Christ at Nazareth, spent in work and prayers is represented by the Kyrie, the Collect and other prayers.
4. The preaching of the Prophets, that of St. John the Baptist and that of the seventy Disciples announcing the coming of Christ and preparing the people to receive Him, are represented by the reading of the (Sequence) and the Epistle.
5. The preaching of our Lord to the crowds is recalled by the reading of the Gospel. The recital of the Creed after the Gospel by the Priest and the people, represents those who received the word of Jesus.
6. The washing of the Apostles' feet before the Last Supper is recalled by the washing of the Priest's fingers.
7. The Triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday is recalled by the singing of the Hosanna before the Consecration.
8. The Last Supper is represented and renewed in the Consecration.
9. The sufferings of Christ are vividly represented by the many signs of the cross over the Host and the Chalice, also by the two Elevations and by the breaking of the Host. His death is represented by the separation of the two species of bread and wine.
10. The Resurrection is recalled by the mixing of the two Species of bread and wine.
11. His Apparitions after the Resurrection are recalled by the blessing and graces we receive from the Chalice.
12. His Ascension and the imparting of His last blessing are recalled by the last blessing given by the Priest at the end of the Mass.
