

Catechism of the Crisis in the Church “The New Mass”

- Were the Protestants the only non-Catholics to influence the preparation of the new liturgy?

Besides the influence of Protestants, the liturgical reform of 1969 was influenced by Freemasonry.

- How did Freemasonry exert its influence on the liturgical reform of 1969?

Freemasonry influenced the liturgical reform indirectly at first, thanks to the opening to the world preached by Vatican II at the very moment that civil society began to be dominated by Masonic slogans: progress, the cult of man, freedom, secularization, tolerance, equality, etc. Everything that manifested divine transcendence, the sense of the sacred, respect for authority, contempt for the world, the acknowledgment of our status as sinners, the importance of the spiritual combat, the need for sacrifice and reparation, or simply the clear acknowledgment of a supernatural order, seemed ill-adapted to “modern man,” and was eliminated or watered down.

- Can you give some examples of these changes?

The new liturgy modified or expurgated texts speaking too clearly of hell or the devil (the Dies Irae in the Mass for the Dead; the Collects of the 17th Sunday after Pentecost and the feasts of St. Nicholas, St. Camillus de Lellis, etc.); of original sin (Collect of Christ the King); of penance (Collects of St. Raymond of Peñafort, St. John-Marie Vianney, the Curé of Ars; of the Thursday after Ash Wednesday); the contempt of the things of the earth (Collect of St. Francis of Assisi, the Postcommunion of the second Sunday of Advent, the Secret of the third Sunday after Easter); the need to make satisfaction for sins (Collect of the Sacred Heart); the enemies of the Church (Communion of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, and the Collects of St. Pius V, St. John Capistrano, etc.); the dangers of error (the Good Friday prayer for the conversion of heretics and schismatics, and the Collects of St. Peter Canisius, St. Robert Bellarmine, and St. Augustine of Canterbury); the miracles of saints (Collects of St. Nicholas, St. Francis Xavier, St. Raymond of Peñafort, St. John of God, St. Frances Roman, etc.).

Month of October:

October is especially dedicated to the Rosary: Families should strive to pray their rosary together and, if possible, attend the Rosary and Benediction at the Church. Fr Fullerton has requested a 30 day Rosary novena for the District. As you know a plebiscite regarding same sex marriage is presently underway here in Australia. The polls will close on Nov 7th and the novena will run from the Feast of the Holy Rosary Oct 7th until Nov 7th. We will ask for the intercession of Our Lady Help of Christian, Patroness of Australia, and for the protection of the family especially through the protection of marriage.

The consecration of the District to the Immaculate Heart of Mary will be renewed on the 13th of October.

Feast of Christ the King, 29th October: The 9:00 am High Mass will be at the Rockdale Town Hall followed by a Procession to the Church. It will be followed by a Christ the King of All Nations Meal and some entertainment from various countries. Please sign up with the Sisters.

Banns of Marriage: are announced for the second time between Kieran Moss and Olivia Memmolo. If anyone knows of any impediment to this marriage they are obliged to inform one of the priests as soon as possible.

Catechism: No classes until 27th October. Classes for adults on Friday evenings from 7:30 to 8:20 pm.

Sunday Catechism: Classes today.
