Fourth Sunday after Easter CASTI CONNUBII

18. Nor must We omit to remark, in fine, that since the duty entrusted to parents for the good of their children is of such high dignity and of such great importance, every use of the faculty given by God for the procreation of new life is the right and the privilege of the married state alone, by the law of God and of nature, and must be confined absolutely within the sacred limits of that state.

19. The second blessing of matrimony which We said was mentioned by St. Augustine, is the blessing of conjugal honor which consists in the mutual fidelity of the spouses in fulfilling the marriage contract, so that what belongs to one of the parties by reason of this contract sanctioned by divine law, may not be denied to him or permitted to any third person; nor may there be conceded to one of the parties anything which, being contrary to the rights and laws of God and entirely opposed to matrimonial faith, can never be conceded.

20. Wherefore, conjugal faith, or honor, demands in the first place the complete unity of matrimony which the Creator Himself laid down in the beginning when He wished it to be not otherwise than between one man and one woman. And although afterwards this primeval law was relaxed to some extent by God, the Supreme Legislator, there is no doubt that the law of the Gospel fully restored that original and perfect unity, and abrogated all dispensations as the words of Christ and the constant teaching and action of the Church show plainly. With reason, therefore, does the Sacred Council of Trent solemnly declare: "Christ Our Lord very clearly taught that in this bond two persons only are to be united and joined together when He said: 'Therefore they are no longer two, but one flesh'."

21. Nor did Christ Our Lord wish only to condemn any form of polygamy or polyandry, as they are called, whether successive or simultaneous, and every other external dishonorable act, but, in order that the sacred bonds of marriage may be guarded absolutely inviolate, He forbade also even willful thoughts and desires of such like things: "But I say to you, that whosoever shall look on a woman to lust after her hath already committed adultery with her in his heart." Which words of Christ Our Lord cannot be annulled even by the consent of one of the partners of marriage for they express a law of God and of nature which no will of man can break or bend.

Brown Scapular: Anyone who would like to be enrolled in the brown scapular should approach the communion rail after either Mass today, Sunday, 28th April.

Sunday Catechism: Classes today for all ages.

Adult Catechism: There will not be adult catechism this week due to First Friday Devotions.

Hymns at 8:00 am Mass: Starting soon, there will be a hymn intoned before and after the 8:00 am Sunday Masses. Please feel free to join in (2 verses).

Mary's Month of May: Rosary and Benediction will be held daily in honour of Our Lady whenever possible during May. Families should recite the daily Rosary to honour Our Lady and to seek her protection. Join us at the chapel if possible.

Register for First Communions 2024: First Communions are scheduled to take place on Sunday, September 15. Please remember that parents have a grave duty to see to it that their children are presented to the priest for first confession and first communion in a timely manner. To register please email us at sydney@sspx.com.au requesting details. First communion classes are already under way and are held every time there is Sunday catechism.

Confirmations 2024: The sacrament of Confirmation will not be offered at Child Jesus and St Joseph Church in 2024, but they will be scheduled in 2025.

Singleton Parish May Pilgrimage to Our Lady Rosa Mystica Shrine on Sat, 18th May. 10:30 am Low Mass and visit to the shrines of the saints. Picnic lunch/BBQ follows. Bring a plate.
